

Obituary

Born: Friday, July 4, 1941

Died: Friday, August 2, 2019

Lifetime native of Flagstaff, Linda was set free to join her beloved husband, Louis (Bootsie) and her daughter Diane who preceded her to the Promised Land.

She was born on the Fourth of July in the year 1941. She was a devoted wife, mother and friend to many. Linda, a career homemaker supported her beloved Bootsie throughout their marriage of 57 years. They traveled the state attending the many sporting events Bootsie and her children played in. She enjoyed celebrating all special occasions with her family. In her later years, her attention focused to being a caregiver to her husband until his passing in 2016. A true survivor, she beat cancer and successfully overcame a stroke in 2015. She prospered in her final years, enjoying her friends at the Peaks until another stroke proved to be too much for her.

Her four remaining children, Martin (Anita), Flagstaff, Margaret (Mike), Scottsdale, David (Sharon), Las Vegas NV and Jennifer of San Diego, survive her. Her grandson John Michael (Yvonne), their son Aiden and siblings, Carole Brown, Max Castillo and Martha Montgomery also survive her.
