

Obituary

Born: Wednesday, January 14, 1953

Died: Monday, October 21, 2019

Our beloved husband, father, grandfather, and great-grandfather, Larry D. Marek walked on to meet his Creator on October 21, 2019. He was surrounded by his loving family when he left.

Larry is survived by his wife of 44 years, Martha, whom he met at Haskell Indian Junior College; children Veronica, Ora, Cecilia, Isabel, and Larry J.; son-in-law Victor, grandchildren Brandan, Joshua, Victor, Alessandro, and Appolonia; and great-granddaughters Sophia and Olivia. He joins his mother Helen, father Joseph, brother Reggie, and his grandson Jordan on the other side.

Larry was born in Seattle, WA, grew up in Fort Simcoe, WA, and lived in Lapwai, Idaho before settling in Flagstaff. Larry was a proud member and former councilman of the Nez Perce tribe of Idaho. He was a fisherman, hunter, storyteller, jeweler, artist, printer, photographer, and a carpenter. Larry was also a proud Alumni of Northern Arizona University. He will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved him.
